

1.2.40

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, March 18, 2004, Part 3 of 3 different messages.

www.unc.bz

1. You have yet to sense what My hand has provided for you, what My heart has provided for you, what has come forth on your behalf and your heart cry to bring forth My people into the positions of power that you have desired for My people.
2. I desire many things for My people, but not many of My people have desired many things for My people. And you have hurt, you have yearned, you have cried for My people to be not in lack, not on back streets and not in shadows, but on front rows and in leadership and in places of power and prowess. You have searched me. You have plumbed My depths at times seeking Me why My dedicated-surrendered-submitted are not leading the organizations of innovation and creativity and cutting-edge development in every vocation. And Ted, that's why, that's one reason I have chosen you, because you chose Me, to talk with Me about My body, and cry out to Me why things were thus and so.
3. And so I empower you and have empowered you and will increasingly empower you to move on My behalf to empower My body like you chose, like you choose, and like you will continue to choose how to empower My body into Me-ness that is truly Me.
4. I love you and I thank you for wanting more for My body, wanting more for the little people, wanting more for those who do not know Me, wanting more for those who know Me and have had so little, wanting more for those long abandoned, obscure, and the many who seek Me and know Me in certain ways-limited, much limited often, and yet crying out to Me for more.
5. More you will make My body more. I will take you where no man has gone if you continue in Me and continue to become the man that you choose to become, that you have chosen to become that has taken you on the path that has brought you to where you are.
6. You have yet to sense My power. You have yet to sense the sweep of My hand the way it is coming. I come Ted, and that's why I've told you the warnings that I have told you. I have given you rebuke and I have given you counsel and you have taken My rebuke and asked Me for more. You have asked Me to judge you. You repeatedly asked Me to judge you.
7. You begged Me to judge you and I can move when someone opens to Me completely to judge them.

8. I move in judgement. I move in love. I am one. I am power and there is no power that moves but by Me. There is that which counterfeit is, and it shall cease. You shall see much and you shall enjoy the sweep of My hand, My right arm, and you shall see so much because you want so much to see so much in My body.

9. You have yearned to elevate the little people, the people who have not mattered to the people in leadership very much, for many leaders have not valued the people they led—not in church, not in commerce, not in anything, seeing them only as a means to their end—but that is diminishing in My body and will continue to diminish as I raise My right arm.

10. And you shall lead many into leadership and off of back rows and out of obscurity and you will make My name ubiquitous with innovation and creativity. I am the great I Am and there is none other beside Me. I am the first and last, the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, and there is no creativity except in Me.

11. You will see the things I have declared forth this day and you will see multitudes move from back rows into leadership as you leadership My body and explode the leadership explosion in Me. Connections great, connections powerful, connections powerful you are, as long as you stay at My knee, championing those who are little and yet want Me so. I love you Ted.

12. I love you majestic ones who sit in solitude, who sit often solemn, wondering why life is like it is for you. I love you majestic ones who have called and cried out to My name, sought Me in the scripture, sought Me on your knees, and yet had so little of Me, so little fellowship. I am coming to you and I am coming to you now and I am coming to you with leaders who exalt you and not belittle you, who manipulate never, but freedomize with every action of their heart.

13. I love you majestic ones who have served and served and served, and some of you have given and given and given, some in understanding, some in ignorance, many in subservience, but I come and I call and I freedom-ize you this day. Into My eyes gaze and graze and glean and glisten and forward march in the day of My arising you which today now is. I arise you—be belittled no more. I come and I confidence you and significance you. You are significant to Me. Hear my love, see My love, feel My love, and become My love, for you are My love, and I love you deeply, dearly, and always will.

14. Thank you for reading these words, listening to these words, rereading, re-listening, pondering, praying, meditating about and seeing Me in them, and see what I want to do with you, for you, through you, to My body—My body at large, and getting larger, momentum'd by Me.

I love you. I love you. I love you.

Come to Me and let Me love you more.
I bless you this day.
Goodnight.